HEN Lafayette put aside the pomp and ruffles of the French Court, and became a fighter for your liberty and mine, he brought with him his beautifully chased set of razors.

As a soldier, he realized the part they would play in keeping him ht. But after he was wounded at Brandywine, the young general found it was not so easy to shave unaided, for in spite of their sweetness of balance and true French temper, his razors lacked the common sense element of safety. What Lafayette needed was the double-edged, detachable, guarded blade of the

Real Razor - made Safe

In general form, exactly the same as lay the long, safe blade of this real razor Lafayette's own exquisitely balanced razor, but with these extra advantages: (1) Absolute safety.
